RESOURCE GUIDE

Helpful contact for individuals in crisis, treatment or recovery

The Community Media Center is in the process of building our Resources Guide to provide a list various organization, service providers and other resources available in the county and surrounding area that can help individuals and their families dealing with substance use disorders. We will continue to add new contacts to the listing.

The following organizations, services and providers are listed for information purposes only. The Community Media Center does not recommend or endorse any particular organization, service or provider. Inclusion in this listing should not be considered an endorsement of services provided.
